

Media Release

The Fire Chiefs of Northumberland County would like to announce that as of Thursday, July 26, 2018, all burn bans within Northumberland County have now been lifted.

We would like to thank the residents and visitors of the county for their understanding and cooperation during this dry spell of weather.