Camborne, ON – Library Services

Hamilton Township is fortunate to have two library branches in our community - Gores Landing Library at 5199 Burnham Street North, Gores Landing and Bewdley Library (Alice D. Behan) at 7060 Lake Street, Bewdley. These branches operate under the umbrella of the Cobourg Public Library which is located at 200 Ontario Street, Cobourg.

Some of the services offered by our Library may be of particular interest this time of year, for you and your family, assisting with novel studies, school projects, assignments and more. Should your student be studying French language, there are materials available for loan such as board books, picture books, chapter books and nonfiction books.

DVD's are available if you wish to have family night. The youth services department have many movies to entertain even the toughest critic!

The libraries also have a number of free programs for students and families to participate in, so please view these links for further details:

Programs for Adults & Teens

Children & Families

Homework help

The libraries also have a Homeschooling program weekly that includes activities for homeschooled students.

This fall, coming events/programs at the Hamilton Township Branches include "Puking Pumpkins", "Halloween Funday" & "Solar Robotics". Hamilton Township will also be hosting their 2nd Local Government Day, so come join us and the Library for various interactive events.

If you wish to find out the most current activity or event, please visit <http://calendar.cobourg.ca/library> for details on location and time.

Make the Library part of your child's school year and make use of these programs.
